However, transactions with the same counterparty of the same type will be aggregated for the reporting period. For instance, sales transfers with the same party may be aggregated for the reporting period and purchase transactions may also be disclosed in a similar manner. There should be no netting off for sale and purchase transactions. Similarly, loans advanced to and received from the same counterparty should be disclosed separately, without any netting off. In case of a multi-year related party transaction:

- The aggregate value of such related party transaction as approved by the audit committee shall be disclosed in the column "Value of the related party transaction as approved by the audit committee".
- The value of the related party transaction settled by the audit committee shall be disclosed in the column "Value of the related party transaction settled by the audit committee".
- The value of the related party transaction undertaken in the reporting period shall be reported in the column "Value of related party transaction during the reporting period".

7. "Cost" refers to the cost of borrowed funds for the listed entity. B. Transactions such as acceptance of fixed deposits by banks/NBFCs, undertaken with related parties, as the terms uniformly applicable to/affected all shareholders/public shall also be reported.
